

Easiest online business to start

Yarddiant

1. Affiliate marketing

Promoting and selling products of other retailers for a commission received. This is done using an affiliate link.

2. SEO and Social Media consulting

SEO consulting can be done by anyone who is well known and updated with search engine algorithms and strategies to implement for better ranking.

Social media is necessary to manage as the whole business is now done online. So they will entrust the work of managing social media.

3. Freelance web design and web development

Web design and development services can be done by experienced developers. They could work on freelance projects to develop websites.

4. Graphic design

Graphic designing can be done by anyone with having creative mind. Creative designs is to be used to attract customers and promote your business in a different way.